AT HOME WITH MAURICE

Shut your eyes and imagine yourself in a dream-house in London's exclusive Belgravia. Then open them and look at Bee Gee twin Maurice Gibb's fantastic house. Same as the one you were thinking about? When Maurice asked FAB around to view his plush pad, we found two was his magic number. His house is really two-in-one. And there are two sitting-rooms, two work rooms, two bedrooms and two bathrooms. Surely this is the ultimate in twogetherness!

(Now turn to page 22 for more info on the pad)
